April 28, 1910.

Miss Marguerite Cassedy,

Essex Fells, New Jersey.

Dear Miss Cassedy:

I take pleasure in sending you herewith my cheque, to your order, for one hundred dollars, as compensation for the time you so kindly spent in assisting Miss Baldwin in the preparation of the catalogue of our exhibition. I trust that this will be satisfactory to you.

As I have to turn in vouchers for all of my expenditures, I would be greatly obliged if you would kindly sign and return the enclosed duplicate receipts.

Trusting that you are enjoying this pleasant spring weather, and hoping that we will have the pleasure of seeing you here, when you return to the city, I am, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Director.

Mr Bauman L. Belden,
American Numismatic Society,
New York.

My dear Mr Belden:

I received the check, for which I enclose receipt. It is certainly more than satisfactory and I greatly thank the society.

I shall surely drop in at the Museum and linger a bit over those French medals as soon as the novelty of the country in springtime wears a little.

Sincerely
Marguerite Cassedy.
